

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	vii
List of Contributors	ix
Introduction Zenon Bańkowski and Maksymilian Del Mar	1
1 The Space to See: Law and the Ethical Imagination Zenon Bańkowski	11
2 The Education of Attention and Encounter in the Legal Academy Maksymilian Del Mar	33
3 On Encountering Life and Learning With/out the Text: Reflections on Bańkowski and Del Mar Julian Webb	65
4 A University is Not the World: And Nor is its Law School Anthony Bradney	85
5 'Associated Life': Democratic Professionalism and the Moral Imagination Paul Maharg	111
6 Challenging the Primacy of Text: The Role of the Visual in Legal Education Clare Sandford-Couch	145
7 Twyla Tharp Goes to Law School: On the Use of the Visual and Performing Arts in Professional Education Thomas Wm. Mayo	169

vi	The Moral Imagination and the Legal Life © Copyrighted Material
8	Truth in Context: Sketching a (New) Historicist Legal Pedagogy Randy Gordon	189
9	Performance, Pedagogy and Law: Theatre of the Oppressed in the Law School Classroom Gillian Calder	215
	Index	255