

Preface

Acknowledgements

Part I: The Enchantment of Knowledge: Fact and Fiction in Law and Literature

1. The Enchantment of Knowledge and Its Apotheosis: Gustave Flaubert's Bouvard and Pécuchet

2. A Raid on the Inarticulate

3. Explanation or Understanding: Language and Interdisciplinarity

4. Understanding Fact and Fiction in Robert Musil's The Man without Qualities

5. Poetry That Does Not Fade: Gerrit Achterberg's Experience with Law and Forensic Psychiatry

Part II: Iuris Prudentia or Insightful Knowledge of Law

6. Practical Knowledge: Facts, Norms and Phronèsis

7. Metaphor and (Dis)belief

8. Narrative Intelligence: Empathy, Mimesis and the Equitable

9. Towards a Legal Narratology I: Probability, Fidelity, and Plot

10. Towards a Legal Narratology II: Implications and Pathologies

Part III: The Perplexity of Judges

11. Empathy Revisited: Who's in Narrative Control?

12. Person and Poiesis in Technology and Law: Questioning Builds a Way

13. Control, Alt, Delete? Information Technology and the Human

Coda

Bibliography

Index.