

Table of Contents

Introduction..... By Karen-Margrethe Simonsen and Ditlev Tamm	7
Rich, Sweet, and Tender vs. Sour, Displeased and Upset: Two Ways of Seeing Things in 'Noon Wine' By Richard H. Weisberg	15
'The Bloody Book of Law', some Remarks on the Interrelation of Law, Medicine, and the Behavioral Sciences in William Shakespeare's The Tragedy of Othello, the Moor of Venice By Jeanne Gaakeer	21
The Menace of Venice, Or Reading and Performing the Law in/of The Merchant of Venice By Leif Dahlberg	33
Killing an Arab = ? On Judgments as Literature and Literature as Judgment: By Arild Linneberg	57
Law as a Tale of Identity – and Some Perspectives on Human Rights Law..... By Sten Schaumburg-Müller	67
Europe as Contested Terrain: On European Narratives of Human Rights By Helle Porsdam	79