

FOREVER COMPOSED OF NOWS

Celebrating Jeanne Gaakeer's work on law, language and literature

Editors:
Claudia Bouteligier
Pauline Phoa
Sanne Taekema

Boom

FOREVER COMPOSED OF NOWS

CELEBRATING JEANNE GAAKEER'S WORK ON LAW, LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

CLAUDIA BOUTELIGIER, PAULINE PHOA, AND SANNE TAEKEMA (EDS.)

Boom

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Celebrating Connections	11
A Brief Introduction to the Work of Jeanne Gaakeer Claudia Bouteligier, Pauline Phoa, and Sanne Taekema
1. Introduction	11
2. The Three Degrees: English Literature, Philosophy, Law	11
3. Teaching Law: Legal Doctrine in Context(s)	13
4. The Intertwinement of Theory and Practice	15
5. This Volume: Idea and Themes	17
In the Court of Practical Wisdom	19
Hermeneutics and Narrative Jurisprudence Jeanne Gaakeer
1. Back to Basics	19
2. Dynamic Hermeneutics	23
3. Narrative Order in Law	29
4. Back to the Future	36
Self/Portrait/Art	39
A Legal-Literary Reflection Hanneke van Eijken and Pauline Phoa
1. Through the Looking Glass	39
2. "I am nobody! Who are you?"	42
3. "A moon like an orange drawn by a child. No. // Never. You watch it peel itself into the sea"	46
4. Reflections	48
PART 1 "WHEN MERCY SEASONS JUSTICE"	49
REFLECTING ON JUDICIAL PRACTICES
The Iliad and the Supreme Court	51
Transformations in Literature, Life – And Law James Boyd White
1. The Iliad	51
2. Interlude: Transformations in Life and Art	56
3. The Life of Law	57

TABLE OF CONTENTS

More Than Ideal	67
Judicial Craft in Communal Context
Gary Watt
1. Introduction	67
2. 'A Local Habitation and a Name'	68
3. Judicial Craft as Making	71
4. 'A Song of Iron and Steel'	71
5. 'Carbon Omissions'	72
6. Conclusion	78
Moved, Indignant, Angry Judges	79
How an Emotionalization of the Judiciary Weakens Its Affective Force
Frans-Willem Korsten
1. To Nag Judges – Distinct Selves or People Like You and Me	79
2. Popular Culture and Emotions in 'Court': Subdued Assessments vs. Savage Moments	82
3. The Victim's Right to Speak and Its Affective Impact on Judges	85
4. Authority in Times of Credit: Social Role Versus Fluctuating Creditworthiness	87
5. Conclusion: Legality and the Role of Judges in Affective Force Fields	89
"Worthy of my undying regard"	91
The Shadow-Line of Judging
Marc Loth
1. Introduction	91
2. "In that twilight region between youth and maturity"	92
3. The Shadow-Line of Judging	96
4. "Worthy of my undying regard"	99
Lady Justice in Real Life	101
On Adaptive Judicial Professionalism
Elaine Mak
1. Introduction	101
2. The Judicial Persona	101
3. Changing Views on Judicial Roles and Their Meaning for the Judicial Persona	103
4. Building Blocks for a Theory of Adaptive Judicial Professionalism	104
5. Underlying Elements: Conceptions and Functions of Law	107
6. Jeanne's Ingredients for Adaptive Judicial Professionalism in the 21st Century	110

PART 2 “BUT WHAT OF OUR LAWS, MASTER?”	113
ON NARRATIVITY AND LAW
From Negated Poetry to Fictional Worlds	115
Some Criminal Cases in the Judicial System in Norway Through the Years
Arild Linneberg
1. Judging from Experience	115
2. Non-Fiction Prose as Negated Poetry	115
3. What Is Poetry? The Treholt Case 1984-2011	116
4. The Torgersen Case 1959-2023. Introversive Semiosis in the Legal System	120
5. Simulated Models of Reality. The Baneheia Case 2000-2023	121
6. ‘Make-believe’: Legal Narratives as Imaginary Constructions	123
Lost in Translation?	125
The Walk Towards a Narratological Theory of Travelling Concepts in Constitutional Studies
Lotte van den Bosch
1. Contested Concepts in a Constitutional Context	126
2. Travelling Constitutional Concepts	131
3. Conclusion	136
The Court Speaks	139
The Narrator in Judgments of the European Court of Human Rights
Yuliia Khyzhniak
1. Introduction	139
2. The Relationship Between Judges and the Narrator of the ECtHR’s Judgments	140
3. The Type of Narrator in the ECtHR’s Judgments	142
4. Concluding Remarks	148
PART 3 “THE VIEW DOESN’T VIEW ITSELF”	149
EXPLORING CONCEPTS IN LAW AND HUMANITIES
Law and Memory	151
Negationism and Revisionism as Counternarratives
Daniela Carpi
1. Introduction: Law and Memory	151
2. Negationism/Revisionism	151
3. Literature, Law and Memory	157
4. George Orwell’s 1984	157
5. W.G. Sebald’s Austerlitz	159

6.	R.H. Balson's Once We Were Brothers	160
7.	G. Swift's Waterland	161
8.	Conclusion	162
Jeanne Gaakeer's Narrative Imagination in Law and Justice and the Possibilities of Theatrical Jurisprudence		163
Marett Leiboff
1.	The Noticing Judge	163
2.	The Street Scene	166
3.	The War Veteran and the Psychologist	169
4.	Challenging the Body	171
With Mirth and Laughter Let Old Wrinkles Come		175
The Relevance of Humour for the Art of Judgement
Carinne Elion-Valter
1.	The Death of Laughing?	175
2.	Says the Judge to a Fat Man ..., the Main Theories of Humour	177
3.	Humour as Conversation	178
4.	Humour as Malversation	180
5.	Humour as Empathic Contempt	182
6.	Conclusion	185
No Man Is a Machine		187
A Legal Approach to AI Based on Ian McEwan's Machines Like Me
Benjamin Verhey
1.	Introduction	187
2.	AI and Legal Personhood	188
3.	Machines Like Me	194
4.	Concluding Remarks: Machines Like Me and AI Legal Personhood	199
Phersu, Prosōpon, Persona		203
On Legal Personhood, Roman Sculpture and the Art of Law
Lukas van den Berge
1.	Introduction	203
2.	Phersu : Death Cult and Ancestor Worship	206
3.	Prosōpon : Greek and Roman Theatre	210
4.	Persona : Philosophy and Law	212
5.	Roman Sculpture: Tivoli General	215
6.	Conclusion and Outlook	217

PART 4 “WO RECHT VIEL WIDERSPRÜCHE SCHWIRREN”	219
CONCEPTUALISING INTERDISCIPLINARITY
Sensus Juridicus	221
A Legal Hermeneut and Narrator’s Exploration of rechtsbewustzijn and Rechtsgefühl in the Praxis of Judging
Greta Olson
1. Introduction	221
2. Sensus Juridicus in Relation to Rechtsgefühl	222
3. Cultural Memories of Individual Legal Theories and Literatures	224
4. On the Difficulties of Translating and Explicating Rechtsgefühl	226
5. Setting the Scene for Jeanne’s Discussion	227
6. The Legal Hermeneut and Narrator’s “nimble mind”	228
7. Seeing Dissimilarities and Creating a Third Space	232
8. The Judge and Her Audience	233
Stories for Legal Theory	235
François Ost
1. Introduction	235
2. Philosophy and Social Sciences	236
3. Theory and Philosophy of Law	237
4. Conclusions	245
The Tragic Character of a Multidisciplinary Researcher	247
Wibren van der Burg
1. Introduction: The Person Behind the Research Project	247
2. Varieties of Interdisciplinary Research	248
3. The Multidisciplinary Researcher: A Combination of Roles?	250
4. A Virtuous Mean?	252
5. A Tragic Character	253
6. Conclusion: Tragic but Not Dramatic	256